

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN RE:

Andre Bisasor

Debtor,

Chapter 13

Case No.: 15-13369

US BANKRUPTCY COURT
2016 FEB 1 PM 3:51

EMERGENCY REQUEST FOR ADDITIONAL TIME TO FILE OBJECTION TO APPLICATION FOR COMPENSATION

I, Andre Bisasor, hereby request an additional ~~14~~ days until 2/15/16 to file objection to debtor's counsel (David G. Baker) application for compensation. Grounds are as follows:

1. I was blindsided by Mr. Baker's recent filing and left without counsel. This move has thrown things into disarray. I need additional time to get the necessary legal assistance to ensure that my rights are not compromised.
2. I am not a lawyer and it is a bit complicated to master the intricacies of bankruptcy law. I would rather have new counsel assist me with this.
3. Mr. Baker's malicious motion to withdraw has created a situation where it makes finding new counsel not as quick and easy.
4. I need more time put together a proper and effective response.
5. Mr. Baker has been making applications for compensation under this kind of situation for a long time now. It has come to my attention that this appears to be a pattern with Mr. Baker, where he (for one reason or another) ends up with a windfall after abandoning a client or after the client has no choice but to fire him.
6. I need legal assistance to carefully address this issue in order to protect my rights.

Respectfully submitted,
By The Debtor
